Some folks think I'm greedy
And I just take from you
And if I say that's true now
What good would that do?
And if I wanted to be funny
I could say that all the money
That you spent on me was just
From fraud
And if I wanted to be bitter
I could say that little by little
All you did for me was no good

I didn't lose your money
I didn't lose your money
I didn't lose your money
Oh no your money just lost you

You brought me up this way
When just a little bit of love
Could have changed my ways
Some folks help the needy
Me I just help myself
And if I shared with you now
It would steadily decrease my wealth
And if I saw you on the street
With worn out shoes upon your feet
I wouldn't give you the price of a cup of tea
I know you brought me from the gutter
Helped me earn my bread and butter
But I have a lousy memory

I didn't lose your money
I didn't lose your money
I didn't lose your money

When just a little bit
And just a little bit
And just a little bit
And just a little bit
And just a little bit of love
Love love love
Could have changed my ways
