

Postcard of a Tidal Wave

Sparks The Rescue

Off into the sunlight
She needs the change in her life
Saying names and not the place
Where opportunities come knocking on my door
Said that I let her down
Trading my secrets with the birds and the bees
Lecturers go deep inside of me
So I was stuck to the ground

She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave
(East coast, West coast it's all the same)
She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave
(Distance shoulders all of the blame)

Signed it with her lipstick
Such imagery and pain
She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave

I searched myself
Over from the inside out
Ridding every memory of you
Deleting everything I knew
I drive around
I know every road to your house
I'm digging through your trash
Gonna find your dirty past, it's all out

She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave
(East coast, West coast it's all the same)
She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave
(Distance shoulders all of the blame)

Winter in Hawaii
Is like summer time in Maine
She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave

Goodbye
(You're following a hurricane Sure that wouldn't feel the same)
Take you time
(Her tidal wave will come
And sweep you off of 95)
Oh yea, yea yea

She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave
(East coast, West coast it's all the same)
She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave
(Distance shoulders all of the blame)

Signed it with her lipstick
You know I'll never be the same
She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave
She sent me a postcard of a tidal wave
