

The Weirdest Way

Sparks The Rescue

I drove my car to your house and watched you undress yourself
Through the window pane, in the weirdest way..
He put his hands on you the way that I used to
Does it feel the same, just a different name?

Tell me you don't know

I can't take my eyes off you
Everywhere you go, everything you do
(has he turned your heart around, baby?)
I can't take my eyes off you
No matter where you go I will follow too
(you flipped my world upside down
It's crazy)

Drove to the end of town, it's here where you showed me how
To feel betrayed, in the weirdest way..
Your skin is paper thin, it's a distraction once again
And this pouring rain is driving me insane..

Act like you don't know

I can't take my eyes off you
Everywhere you go, everything you do
(has he turned your heart around baby?)
I can't take my eyes off you
No matter where you go I will follow too
(you flipped my world upside down..
Has he turned your heart around, baby?)

It's you, my dear, that I've decided
To keep my eyes on, undivided
Never let you go, never let you go
Trying to let you know, trying to let you know

I can't take my eyes off you
Everywhere you go, everything you do
(has he turned your heart around baby?)
I can't take my eyes off you
No matter where you go I will follow too
(you flipped my world upside down..
Has he turned your heart around..?
And the rain is still pouring down, baby)

I drove to your cousin's house and watched you undress yourself
In the window pane.. the weirdest way
Your skin is paper thin, it's a distraction once again
In this pouring rain, it's driving me insane

I drove to your cousin's house and watched you undress yourself
In the window pane, in the weirdest way
