Bon Voyage

Bon voyage, bon voyage Bon voyage, bon voyage Bon voyage, bon voyage Bon voyage, bon voyage Clouds forming on the gospel sky, trouble is about to brew on us It didn't matter that we tried, they can only take a few from us The fins and the paws and hooves and feet Saunter up the gangway The randomest sampling is complete God, could there be someway That I could, wear a hood Or by the way I stood Sneak aboard with you Imitate, Imitate, Imitate, Imitate, They still know its you Bon voyage, bon voyage, bon voyage, peace be with all of you I wish that I, I wish that I, were one of you Tears falling on the sloping sand, There about to leave and we will stay All governed by the rules of chance, They're about to leave and we will stay Goodbye to my lucky friends and foes, Glad that we could know you Everyone sends their last hello, I wish that we could join you Two of you Two of them Two of those Two of them Safety for the few Two of you Two of them Two of those Two of them They will start anew Bon voyage, bon voyage, bon voyage Peace be with all of you I wish that I, I wish that I, I wish that I Bon voyage, bon voyage Bon voyage, bon voyage Bon voyage, bon voyage Bon voyage, bon voyage
