

Goofing Off

Sparks

Well, the world has started spinning
'Cause the weekend is beginning
So grab anything that moves and bring some cash

Yeah, I'm looking at your body
And I think I need your body
Yeah, the whole entire body, bring it here
And we've got two days to try to forget
A week of crap and crud
And we've got two days, so get over here

We're gonna goof off good
Goofing off, goofing off
I can do it, do it, do it perfectly
Goofing off, goofing off

It's the only thing I gladly do for free
I'm goin' non-stop for 48 hours
Then I'll collapse right here
Then I'll be scooped up and carried to work

And propped up in a chair
Goofing off, goofing off, goofing off

Plough your way through Monday morning
Plough your way through Tuesday morning
Plough your way through Wednesday, Thursday, Friday too
Then the world begins to spin and spin and spin
And spin and spin and I become a raving, raving, ranting fool

We're in the weekend, don't blow it, oh no
Don't blow that two day pass
We're in the weekend, so get up and go
Don't sit down on your ass

Goofing off, goofing off
I can do it, do it, do it perfectly
Goofing off, goofing off
It's the only thing I gladly do for free

I'm goin' non-stop for 48 hours
Then I'll collapse right here
Then I'll be scooped up and carried to work
And propped up in a chair
Goofing off, goofing off, goofing off.
