Crime To Be Broke In America

Spearhead

I take the needle off the record and shove it in my arm Whenever I feel life is comin' on too strong They left me in a clinic fulla cynical and mothafkin' bureaucrats And other kinda ding bats, they're livin' on the tracks The tracks in my arm said It all depends which side the tracks you're on

Tellin' me what to wear, tellin' me cut my hair And tryin' to convince me that they really really care All about my health and about my wealth But still they built the Stealth 'Cause everybody's just lookin' out for they self So then I ask 'em can I have a clean needle, hell no that's illegal

It's a crime to be broke in America And it's a crime to smoke dank in America

Yeah, hit those drums now, yeah They lockin' brother's in the poorhouse Who can't afford Moorhouse, politicians nervous It's the only free service they provide, you wanna go inside There's a hot meal waitin' for ya, a deal we can score ya On a bed for a night or two, or three or four months

They say they lockin' us up in cells To protect us from ourselves It smells like they got anotha plan in store house Or should I say warehouse fulla niggaz and other misfits That couldn't turn tricks in the courthouse But it's a justice whorehouse

And it's a crime to be broke in America And it's a crime to be black in America, come on

But there's a mutiny on the bounty, in ever single county So, we remember Attica but don't forget to pat a few others On the back as a matter of fact Sister Asatta Shakur and Geronimo Pratt But Amnesty international is fightin' for political But if your analytical, you know it's much more critical Than that percentages black is really, really whack Can I kick a few facts, yes?

Six percent in college, from livin' on the block Twenty five percent in prison, the school of hard knocks Fifty percent in poverty is livin' on the rocks Five hundred brothas on a death row box The say, the punishment is capital For those who lack in capital Because a public defender can't remember the last time A brother wasn't treated like an animal

They say, they blame it on a song when someone kills a cop What music did they listen to when they bombed Iraq? Well, give me one example so I can take a sample No need to play it backwards if you wanna hear the devil 'Cause music's not the problem, it didn't cause the bombin' But maybe they should listen to the songs of people starving

'Cause it's a crime to be broke in America And it's a crime to smoke dank in America

And it's a crime to be black in America And it's a crime to be black in America, come on now

Keep on comin' now, yeah It's a crime to be Puerto Rican It's a crime to be African Crime to be native American A crime to be Asian, Hatian, a woman
