

There'll Be No Tomorrow

Special Duties

There'll be no tommorrow
That's what the newsflash said
Cancel all your orders
'Cos tommorrow you'll be dead

There's no point in running
Your time has come you know
Man's become too clever
So now we'll have to go

Computerised man behind a closed door
Flicks a switch, starts a war
Shouts "Red Alert" can be heard in every town
Behind that closed door that man begins to frown
