

The Walking Dead

Spinnerette

Oh hold the rifle up to my chin
Your bell rings out, it's deceiving
The womb is the safest place I've ever been So carry me home baby, let me back in

No way

Oh hello psycho, is that you in the mirror again?
I can't escape the feeling you'll be here till the end
I've been kissing the grave of a ghost that breathes
The ghost has an army of thieves and they're coming for me
Hey yeah

I won't believe in dying to live
I won't pay for what I do not need
I want to release
I want to be free

Bird in a cage
Eyes to the sky
Here come the angels
Singing deaf lullabies
Crush crystal wings up
Breathe in and choke back
Found my misfortune in the mouth of a cat

Who got your tongue girl
Cut it right out
Striking a match
Calling them out
Hey yeah you're mine
Fruit of thy womb
Blood of a man
That cannot save me now
Only time can

I won't believe in dying to live
I won't pay for what I do not need
I want to release
I want to be free

There is no way out
