

My Reason

Spiritfall

I live a life that's sheltered I'm constantly alone
I'm pointing out my weakness There's an emptiness at home

I need to find a reason to live this way
I'm running out of patience and my life is over

I'm standing here
but I'm on my way Searching to find an answer
I'm standing here
but it's all the same
And I'm running out of patience

And I've obtained my reason for you
And I have gained a reason
for you

But you left me,
you left me here
and I'm all alone

(I've) been stripped of my innocence
I take pity in myself A certain chain of grievance that left in this hell

I need to find a reason
to live this way
I'm running out of patience
and my life is over

I'm standing here
but I'm on my way
Searching to find an answer
I'm standing here
but it's all the same
And I'm running out of patience

for you
for you

But you left me,
you left me here
and I'm all alone
I'm all alone
I'm all alone
I'm all alone
I'm all alone

Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh

Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh

Well I'm searching
To find my reason
To find a reason
To find my reason
Why I need you
And I need you
And I want you But I need to get away from you
And I need you
And I want you
get away from you
But I need you
And I want you
get away from you
Well I need you Yeah I want you But I need to

for you
And I needed someone to love me But you just left me here and I'm lonely
You know I needed
Someone to love me
But I'm all alone
