

Through My Eyes

Spiritfall

i'm always beating you down with the presence of me in you but i'm taking this moment and i'm changing my entire view you won't see through my eyes i'm always by your side i'll always say i love you rewind the thoughts in your head imagination is all that's around what were you thinkins when you said playing with fire is all that you need you're sinking you're screaming i don't even breath i don't even see you i don't see you
