

Homage To The Betrayed

Spiritual Beggars

Someone bring me the wine!

Well you know, know what you came for
Are you still blinded by hate

Well I try and I do understand you
Never met a woman that hasn't betrayed me

You sit and you wait by the phone
You sure gonna gun down that whore

Well I try and I do understand you
Never met a woman that hasn't betrayed me

Someone bring me the wine!

Well you did, you did what you came for
Said it was a voice in your head

Well I try and I do understand you
But can't you tell a demon from a friend?
