

But, Anyway

Splender

I think I've had enough.
I think I might erupt.
I'm looking for some information.

It's digging in the skin.
Whenever I begin,
There's gonna be a complication.

I take another breath,
It's deeper than the rest.
I'm swimming to the final breaker.

It's sitting in my mouth.
I wanna get it out.
I wanna know when somethings on,

But anyway,
I just can't be myself today, apparently
But anyway,
Cause nothing seems to come to me so easily.
But anyway,
Cause I mistake my memories for company.
But what a day, I've gotta say,
I can't believe in myself today.

Sitting on the bed,
Every finger spread,
Looking for some motivation.

If I can offend,
I'll try to fit in
And I dont need an explanation.

I think I'd better wake.
I'm starting to deflate.
I'm looking for some compensation.

I'll never understand.
I'll never be a man,
When I don't know when something's on,

But Anyway,
I just can't be myself today, apparently
But Anyway,
Cause nothing seems to come to me, not possibly.
But anyway,
Cause I mistake my symphony for suffering.
But what a day, I've gotta say,
I can't believe in myself this way.

And I'll face it face down, the long way.
And I'll face it face down, the long way.

I think it's got an end.
I think it's gonna bend.
I think I gotta a new impression.

So tell me how I look.
Tell me what I took,
To try to keep the conversation.

I think I'll get it right.
I'm fucking with the light.
I'll turn it to the situation.

I'm doing what I can.
I'll never understand,
When I don't see when something's on

But Anyway,
I just can't be myself today, apparently
But Anyway,
Cause nothing seems to come to me so happily.
But anyway,
Cause I mistake my memories for company.
But what a day, I've gotta say,
They're getting harder to separate.

But Anyway,
I just can't be myself today, apparently
But Anyway,
Cause nothing seems to come to me, not possibly.
But anyway,
Cause I mistake my symphony for suffering.
But what a day, I've gotta say,
I can't believe in myself today.

I can't believe in myself today.
I can't believe in myself today.
I can't believe in myself today.
I can't believe in myself today.
