

Maybe Someday

Splender

And if I gave you the sun
Would you take it home
And if I gave you a gun
Would you feel alone?
And if I bothered you much
Then tell me to walk away

Away
Away
Away

Throw me a loan to stop all the stones
I would steal you the flesh to sew on your bones
And if you show me a sign then I'm gonna die for you

For you
For you
For you

And so I have to say

Maybe someday
I'll come
Maybe someday
I'll go
I know my way takes me home
But there'll be hell to pay

Blow all the clothes
They never appear
And if you ever got sad
I would choke on your tears
So you shud show me the line
I'm standing behind for you

Coz I've been a vagrant
Who lives in a basement
And every single day I try to replace it
So show me a sign
And im telling you one last time

Maybe someday
I'll come
Maybe someday
I'll go
I know my way takes me home
But there'll be hell to pay

Maybe someday
I'll come
Maybe someday
I'll go
I know my way takes me home
But there'll be hell to pay

No pain, no blood, no oxygen
No breaks, no cuts, no sentences

No time, no way, to work this in
So where do I begin?

So if you gave me a loan
I'd give it all back
And if you wanna get stoned
I wont stop you from that

But if you wanna believe
That I got a need for you

For you
For you

Thats all I have to say

Maybe someday
I'll come
Maybe someday
I'll go
I know my way takes me home
But there'll be hell to pay

But there'll be hell to pay

But there'll be hell to pay

But there'll be hell to pay

[Repeat to fade]
