

Everywhere...
Everywhere I see them
Everywhere I see them talking

Off the wall and on the TV

Everywhere...
Everywhere I see them
Everywhere I see them talking
In every way I've been retreating
But I know it's only going to help
If I can get it out
Off the wall and on the TV
Whatever you think, you're receiving
And of course, we take it for granted
Please, is everyone on their knees
For red herring heroes
They'll just let you down
Feign disguise
They'll tease you and tantalise
Fill you with images
I'm gonna complain

Well, I don't think it's gonna make any difference
No, no I doubt if it's gonna make any difference
Picture if it could be you
Doing anything, anything at all
Just pleasing yourself
No fast takers
No heart breakers
No mistaking
No persuading

Well, well we'll just pretend...

You two guys who are laughing away at me yeah I know what you're up to [yeah] this isn't even going to go in the album at all is it?
