

The Roughest Toughest Game In The World

Split Enz

Where does it start?
where will it finish? nothing is sacred it seems Personal faults, personal problems adding insult to injury

Love is a battle, the roughest toughest game in the world
anything goes, the roughest toughest game in the world
All out war, retire hurt to fight again

It'll drive you to drink And turn into hatred suicide and fighting duels But you battle it out, can't do without it you want to buy it and she sells

Love is a battle, the roughest toughest game in the world
anything goes, the roughest toughest game in the world
All out war, retire hurt to fight again
Love is the roughest toughest game

Love is a battle, the roughest toughest game in the world
anything goes, the roughest toughest game in the world
All out war, retire hurt to fight again
