

4th Street

Spoken

Downtown never looked so lonely as it does tonight
And like the wind that's blowing I long for home tonight
To tell the truth I've never felt so lonely as I do tonight
But I'm alright
I just keep thinking about the words I want to say to you
Just to tell you how I feel
If I could write down what is written on my heart
I'd give anything to hold you in my arms 4th Street has never looked or felt so empty as it feels right now
Not a soul, not a sound has risen from the street tonight, tonight
To tell the truth I don't want to feel this lonely, this lonely ever again
This emptiness has to end
Downtown never looked so lonely as it does tonight
I'm alright
Just to tell you how I feel
