

Bitter Taste

Spoken

Go ahead and nail my face to the floor
Cause you know I'll never make it in my own
You're the blood in my veins
You're the fire burning deep inside
A bitter taste of today
Such as each one that passes
I'll fight this again tomorrow
Watch as the scales fall from my eyes
Another chance to overcome
A bitter taste of today
In a moment it can fade away
Our lives can change so fast
You're the blood in my veins
You're the fire burning deep inside
You'll see a change in me
Watch as the scales fall from my eyes
Go ahead and nail my...to the floor
Go ahead and nail my...to the floor
Go ahead and nail my...to the floor
