

Forevermore

Spoken

break, these chains that bind me
take this world inside me, free me.
break, these chains that bind me
take this world inside me please.
and i will follow you forever,
and i will break these chains that bind my spirit,
he's been calling you forever,
you would surrender if you could only hear it.
shackled by this hatred, chains beneath your skin,
don't you want to be, free again?
shackled by this hatred, chains beneath my skin,
all i want to be is free again.
here i am by your side forevermore.
