

New Life

Spoken

Just for a second my friend, don't walk away from here.
Just give me your hand,
and let me tell you about a God
whose love is true and a God who loves you.
You're running, you're hiding, you're taking, you're faking.
Keep in mind that God is watching,
your life and that plan that you're taking.
He never leaves you,
he's always right there to guide you and hear every prayer.
He's watching you every second of the day.
He sees you, as you slowly slip away.
There's no way you can run from God,
in this lifetime, there's nowhere to hide.
He'll free you, give you a new life,
start over in a new life...
