

Prepare to Meet Thy God

Spoken

Prepare to meet thy God is what I say to you.
I can't make you believe what I believe is true.
All the power and glory of our father.
For, I believe there is no other.
I will tear off this cover of sin and shame,
look to the sky and fall on my knees.
Fight for my god above, fight for the god of love,
fight hear the spirit sing, fight I hear the spirit calling me.
So many faces,
just look at his troubles
you push him to the ground and his body trembles,
you kick him in the face and you mock him,
and all he says is father forgive them...
