

Do You Know The Feeling

Sponge Cola

i look back to me and what do i see? it must have been 1993 had no other care but the wave of your hair and the way you wouldn't look at me what happened that day has managed to stay through a decade worth of misery but what did i miss, a moment of bliss the best of all the years gone by

do you know the feeling?

i want to hold your hand and try to dance but i cant i want this just one kiss
the years fall away

do you know the feeling?

do you know that i want to hold your hand but time moves faster now that i stand still so speechless how can i bridge the distance? it just might feel so right if you could hold me tonight
i want this just one kiss
the years fall away

do you know that
i want this just one kiss
tonight it's all that matters
i want this just one kiss and it will all be over whenever, wherever let's finish what we've started fromback then, my silence spoke through a ten year absence in secret, still feel it just take my hand and follow walk with me 'til tomorrow you wont have to dance now that i see you've grown out of me i guess its back to reality one night in the park held your hands in the dark made some promises we couldn't keep some days i had won now here i am on a time and place apart from me and what did i miss, a moment of bliss
