I hope my head will heal
I hope my head will heal
it's all I ever wanted to feel all well adjusted"
I just can't feel this way anymore feeling this way got to be a bore

"I hope my head will heal I hope my head will heal" it's problematic and a compelling a corrupt disguise

"I hope my head will heal I hope my head will heal" a flaming martyr with the pangs of a Jesus Christ

"it's all I ever wanted but I'm so self destructive" I can't feel this way anymore feeling this way got to be a bore

so simple unassuming selfless human acts of grace with a murdered ego I go surely this can't be vain to know what you want knows the essence of all insane as I am we are I am all all insane
