

My Purity

Sponge

If I was dirt that filled up your life
If I was dirt, so pure and so refined
I'd be the dirt that
That blackened all that shined

Which one would show a purity?
Which one could show how curious
This purity has been?

My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity

My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness

If I was dirt that would make you lie
Could I be dirt in your irreverent smile?
Please pass the dirt
I'll have some on mine

Which one would show my purity?
Which one could show how curious
This purity has been?

My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity

My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness

Drag me down and plough me under
Nothing stays the same
Drag me down and plough me under
Nothing will ever change

If I was the dirt you brought
Through your doorstep
Did that dirt leave you feeling molested?
How was that dirt that you've ingested?

Which one would show my purity?
Which one could show how curious
This purity has been?

My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity

My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity

My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity

My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
