

Atta Girl

Sprung Monkey

Atta Girl!
You hooked em and you caught em
And when it's time you'll throw em back you'll draw the line
Atta Girl!
Now everybody hates you
But you just smile and turn your head and walk on by

It's not a competition
But she calls it ambition
She needs no application
because she's got the position
She sucked a little favor
While she shakes what God gave her
Well she's there for the pleasin
As long as there's a reason

Atta Girl!
You hooked em and you caught em
And when its time to throw em back you tell the line
Atta Girl!
Now everybody hates you
But you just smile and turn your head and walk on by

She's been bitten by the devil
You can see it in her eyes
Well she's full of resentment
And all the demons that she hides
She had dreams of the posh life
Jet-set flyin'
Full of suggestion
As long as you're buyin'
Caught up on her outside
Should have known her inside
Silly boy I hope you enjoy the ride

Atta Girl!
You hooked em and you caught em
But when it's time you'll throw 'em back you'll draw the line
Atta Girl!
Now everybody hates you.....

That girls got somethin' funny in her veins
That girls got somethin' funny in her veins
That girls got somethin' funny in her veins
That girls got somethin' funny in her veins

Atta Girl!
You hooked em and you caught em
But when it's time to throw em back you tell the line
Atta Girl!
Now everybody hates you.
