

Break Up

[spunge]

Hey there's something I wanna share
I'll tell you even though you don't care
Think of all the good times you're gonna have
Don't dwell on the bad times that just makes me mad

Well the sun is shining bright today
Less weight on your head 'cos you managed to get away
Now you've got your freedom, now you've got your chance
Don't just sit around man
Get on your feet, get off your ass

Why can't you just look ahead
Stop dwelling on the bitchy things she said, I know
You've gotta walk before you run
Don't just dream it, go and live it
C'mon bring it on

Hey there's something you need to know
You'll get there, but things are moving kind of slow
Now it's time to try out, things missed in the past
Don't just sit around man
Get on your feet, get off your ass

Well there's hope in your heart today
Living for yourself and you know it's never been this way
Now she's out for good and it's time to sing and dance
Don't just sit around man
Get on your feet, get off your ass

But please take my advice
Don't try and act too nice
Because you don't get chances to make mistakes twice

Hey, there's one thing that's real clear
You're better off without her around here
Nice to have you back and having fun at last
Don't just sit around man
Get on your feet, get off your ass
