

Trust

Squeeze

Trust in me my tongue is weaving
Words of love you must be needing
Trust before the only reason
That our love will never weaken
Trust in me as someone you love

Trust in me, a little closer
Trust the soul in every soldier
Trust in me, each beat taps slightly
On your door, so now invite me
Trust in me as someone you love

Someone that you love
Someone that you trust
Someone to love you more and more

Trust in me, the words are woven
Words of love cannot be broken
Trust before a night together
The secret's ours in trust forever
Trust in me as someone you love

Trust in me as someone you love
Trust in me as someone you love
Trust in me as someone you love
Trust in me as someone you love
Trust
