Blue Angel

Squirrel Nut Zippers

Your mama never told you How you were s'posed to treat a girl Your papa never told you Now you're all alone out in the world

Sirens are screaming Inside, the winding sheets are pale The Devils are dreaming Dreaming of a blue angel

Now I lay me down to sleep But troubled dreams are all I find I pray, the Lord, my soul to keep I pray so I won't lose my mind

Streetlights come streaming On wings tonight, I'll soon set sail The Devils are dreaming Dreaming of a blue angel

Your mama's going to take it hard You always were your mama's boy You're lying in the graveyard Now you're not your mama's joy

Silence is screaming I'll bat an eye and cast my spell The Devils are dreaming Dreaming of a blue angel

The Devils are dreaming Dreaming of a blue angel Devils are dreaming Dreaming of a blue angel Devils are dreaming
