

Too Close

St. Lucia

An empty heart, an empty heart
If you ran away too late to take a different path
I hope you escape

An empty house, an empty heart
Throw it away, too late to take a different path
Lets hope we escape

I'll hold you
Too close
I'll take you
Too close
When I fell we'll turn
We'll still be
Too close
