

Holdin' On

Stacie Orrico

Sometimes the pleasures I see in this world look so attractive to me some days I'm driven by the things that I want more than the things that I need when I'm weakest they sparkle the brightest its true but they'll never shine brighter than you when my is uncertain my heart keeps holdin on

My heart keeps holdin on to you my keep holdin on holdin on to you

My eyes deceive me and turn away to the places that I left behind cant trust these voices that lead me a stray always confusing my mind but the truth is you've captured my heart I know and there's no way ill ever let go when my mind is uncertain
my heart keeps holdin on

holdin on to you

My clinging to you
is really you embracing me

holdin on to you
