Pardon Me

I'm one step from a breakdown Two steps from being saved Just try to see this through Three steps from this nightmare And four steps from the door The rest is up to you

Pardon me while I just turn my back and walk away Pardon me if I can't listen to the things you say Pardon me if I can't fake it while you still believe Pardon me

I'm one step from forgiveness And two steps from my grave. We're all just passing through Three steps from redemption Four from the devil's door On a path that leads to you

Pardon me while I just turn my back and walk away Pardon me if I can't listen to the things you say Pardon me if I can't fake it while you still believe Pardon me

Pardon me while I just turn my back and walk away Pardon me if I can't listen to the things you say Pardon me if I can't fake it while you still believe Pardon me

I'm two steps from salvation But I'm only taking one A#5 (You end on Em) Pardon me
