Wannabe

I'm selling records What is it that you do? Sitting in your mama's basement with a shiatsu Peanut butter on your dick Right hand going click With your left hand giving you a rim job So now you wanna talk about me Who's name is on the marque You hate everything that you can't be I've heard enough and scream!

You're just a sell-out, turn-coat rockstar! Pussy, poser pornstar!

Because you're nothing but a wannabe You're so easy when you're faceless Why don't you focus on your misery? Instead of focusing on me

So number two, that's right What is it you're rolling? Now that your mama's ford focus got stolen Well, it don't matter because you got nowhere to go So back to the hating, frantic masturbating So now you wanna talk about me You know the songs that you download for free You hate everything that you can't be I've heard enough and scream! You're just a sell-out, turn-coat popstar! Pussy, poser rockstar!

Because you're nothing but a wannabe You're so easy when you're faceless Why don't you focus on your misery? Instead of focusing on me
