

The Price Of Love

Stan Bush

All Your Castles In The Sky
Have Fallen To The Ground
And Happily Ever After
Is Nowhere To Be Found
Now It Seems Like Only Yesterday
The Future Looked So Clear
The Suddendly It Disappeared
Well I Know How You Feel
'Cause I Been Down That Long Lonely Road
Now You're Keepin' All Your Dreams To Yourself
Tellin' Nobody Else
But You Just Can't Live That Way, Baby
'Cause There's A Hunger Inside Of The Heart For Love
There's A Call We Must Answer
But There's Always A Price That We Pay For Love
We Put Our Hearts In Each Other's Hand
That's The Price Of Love, Baby
Oh, That's The Price Of Love
Life Just Ain't Worth Livin'
If You're Livin' It All Alone
'Cause Nothin' Ever Comes From Nothin'
You Only Reap What You Have Sown
Now It Seems To Me You've Been Hiding Out
Just A Little Bit Too Long
Did you Ever Think You Might Be Wrong
Well I Can't Make You Change
I Can Only Hold Out My Hand
But Time Will Wait For No One It Seems
When You're Caught In Between
And You Just Can't Live That Way, Baby
'Cause There's A Hunger Inside Of The Heart For Love
There's A Call We Must Answer
But There's Always A Price That We Pay For Love
We Put Our Hearts In Each Other's Hands
That's The Price Of Love, Baby
Oh, It's The Price Of Love
It's So Hard In These Towns
When Your Innocence Dies
And There's No One You Trust
But Life's A Chance We Take
Though We Make Our Mistakes
We Can Both Rise Above
If We Hold On To Love
'Cause There's A Hunger Inside Of The Heart For Love
There's A Call We Must Answer
But There's Always A Price That We Pay For Love
We Put Our Hearts In Each Other's Hands
That's The Price Of Love, Baby
Oh, That's The Price Of Love
Ooh, Put Our Hearts In Each Other's Hands Now
That's The Price Of Love
I Know That Two Hearts Can Understand Now
Oh, The Price Of Love
That's The Price Of Love, Baby
It's The Price Of Love
