

Your Time

Stan Bush

You've waited your whole life
Giving all you have inside
But this one chance to realize your dream
Believing in yourself
'Cause you see there's no one else
No, you can't stop this feeling
That it's your destiny

Giving it your all
Whether you stand or fall
Is there in your heart, oh

Gotta hold on, just be strong
If you want to reach for something higher
Something worth fighting for, yeah
There's a moment in your life
When your star begins to shine
This will be your time

When they tried to pull you down
Victory's the only sound
You hear it in the strength you found within
When it seems you just can't give any more
Remember what you came here for
Way down in your soul
You know you're gonna find the will to win

Run like the eagle flies
Feeding the fire in your eyes
Let it begin, yeah

Gotta hold on, just be strong
If you want to reach for something higher
Something worth fighting for, yeah
There's a moment in your life
When your star begins to shine
This will be your time

In your search for truth you'll find
The questions, they go on and on and
You'll never lose your way
When you know who you are
And when the final hour has come
You're on the rise, you've just begun
You're always giving it your best
Never dreamed you'd go this far

Gotta hold on, just be strong
If you want to reach for something higher
Something worth fighting for, yeah
There's a moment in your life
When your star begins to shine
This will be your time
This will be your time
This will be your time
