Goin' Southbound

Stan Ridgway

Tell not a word that you heard it here But there's a big truck waitin' tonight at the pier Comin' in on an east-bound boat Now, don't be late for delivery"c"chere, put this in your coat It's a strange weight from an exotic locale Don't worry about the cops, 'cause they're in on it, pal Just pick it up no later than tonight at three o'clock And bring it to the warehouse "c"chere, put this in your sock No one left to save you Nobody will return You run so fast, you catch on fire You've just gotta burn Yeah"c"c Goin' southbound Follow that sound Long line of cars Just a-movin' out of town You've got this job

But you don't know how And everybody does What nobody will allow

Full moon shines like a big cue ball Someone fishin' on the pier, might as well stall Repaint the car, change your license plate How ya spell relief? must be somethin' that you ate

All this is a secret As common as that dirt We'll rely on your expert eye Here, put this in your shirt Yeah"c"c

Goin' southbound Follow that sound Long line of cars Just a-movin' out of town You've got this job But you don't know how And everybody does What nobody will allow (2x)

And we'll all be waiting so long Wait so long We'll all be waiting so long Wait so long, wait so long

Now if you get caught, don't tell 'em about me The last one who did, well, we tied him to a tree Out in the high desert, by an ant hill Haven't been back there since"c"cguess he's swingin' there still

All this is a secret As common as that dirt We'll rely on your expert eye Here, put this in your shirt Yeah"c"cyeah! yeah! yeah!

Goin' southbound
Follow that sound
Long line of cars
Just a-movin' out of town
You've got this job
But you don't know how
And everybody does
What nobody will allow
(2x)

Goin' southbound... We're goin' southbound... We're goin' southbound... We're goin' southbound...
