

Unbroken

Stan Walker

I don't know what this is
But I can tell it's something that I can't miss
It's like your showing me where happiness lives
And all I have the strength to do is turn to you
With every empty space
I'm missing pieces only you can replace
I'm like a package saying please don't break
The contents are fragile, so I'm glad your here to stay

I can promise you that this heart
Was brighter than a falling star
And all the money that I could take
Now theres nothing more I can break

You picked up my pieces and put me together
There's no way you'd ever know
That my heart was breaking
Cause you came and threw me a line
I was falling apart but now I'm falling forever
For someone who wont let go
My love's a token
Because of you I'm unbroken
Now every piece of my heart is falling back into place

Time stops
When I'm with you I count the seconds I got Cause every minute I was something I'm not
You give them back to me
It's like history, don't mean a thing
When I try to run away I can't hide
I'm in the dark and all I see is your light
And your shining brighter than anything I've ever seen

And I can promise you this heart
Will be a falling star
Cause you know what it means

You picked up my pieces and put me together
There's no way you'd ever know
That my heart was breaking
Cause you came and threw me a line
I was falling apart but now I'm falling forever
For someone who wont let go
My love's a token
Because of you I'm unbroken
Now every piece of my heart is falling back into place

I just woke up from a dream when I was in one piece
No fragment of me had ever seen these streets
Love held me together and it never let me go

I just woke up from a dream when I was in one piece
No fragment of me had ever seen these streets
Love held me together and it never let me go
There's nothing left for me to break

You picked up my pieces and put me together

There's no way you'd ever know
That my heart was breaking
Cause you came and threw me a line
I was falling apart but now I'm falling forever
For someone who wont let go
My love's a token
Because of you I'm unbroken
Now every piece of my heart is falling back into place
