

I Will Be

Stanfour

All the thoughts in your mind you can say them to me
All the tears in your eyes you can let them fall free
When you're seen, when you hide, either way I swear that I will be

Here with you don't be scared
you can lose yourself
Close your eyes the coast is clear, I will guard you well
Save the words rest your soul in the silence, baby
Don't you fear

'Cause I will be, I will be
The one who's there when your world's asleep
And when you wake and if you break
I won't be far, wherever you are

I'm the place you can rest when your dreams go blind
I'm the breath you can take when you're trapped inside
You're the reason, I get through
You were there for me
I'm here for you

'Cause I will be, I will be
The one who's there when your world's asleep
And when you wake and if you break
I won't be far, wherever you are

Brought me back to life
Lit my sky on fire
Opened up my eyes
I will be

I won't be far, wherever you are
'Cause I will be
The one who's there when your world's asleep
And when you wake and if you break
I won't be far, wherever you are
I will be
