

Sail On

Stanfour

You - oh you can't see the light
No you can't see the light
Your world - your world's so frail
Oh oh

But wait - too late to agonize
Over what could have been
It's our fate
Just keep your head up high tonight

You sailed on for so long
Waited for so long
Save yourself tonight
Save yourself tonight
Sailed on for so long
Don't break just sail on
Save yourself tonight
Save yourself tonight

You are chasing truth, oh
The fire burns inside of you
But you wouldn't know
Oh oh

But you cry - I see you cry, oh
I see the same old tears
Are streaming down your face again

You sailed on for so long
Waited for so long
Save yourself tonight
Save yourself tonight
Sailed on for so long
Don't break just sail on
Save yourself tonight
Save yourself tonight

You sailed on for so long
Waited for so long
Save yourself tonight
Save yourself tonight
Sailed on for so long
Don't break just sail on
Save yourself tonight
Save yourself tonight

But you sailed on
Sailed on for so long
Save yourself tonight
Save yourself tonight
