

The Broken Branches

Star Fucking Hipsters

another natural disaster a greedy little mouth to feed a season to die faster a reason for the earth to bleed every gated up suburban home confines the genealogy of a skull to fill the catacombs and hang down from the family tree we're scarred and beat down through the skin we're drunk and always stumbling blind ignorance and power-lust gestated the americas it's all a greedy-ocracy every ogma veils hypocrisy sycophantic docile robot clowns they'll kick you when they know that you are down!
the broken branches
the shattered glasses
the avalanches
the more i learn the less i know the more i reap the less i sow the streets are paved with epitaphs sink the lifeboat, burn the raft cast your stones, we'll cast a song life's a dream, there's nothing wrong go thump your bibles, pray for us but fuck you and your fucking judgement bus
the broken branches
the avalanches
(and) the branches sag beneath the weight the branches break
(and) the branches sag beneath the weight the branches break beneath the weight the weight
