Can I Stay Here Forever

Through forgotten convictions Misplaced affections I'm losing the sound of Your voice I've been chasing after emptiness Trying to tidy up this mess I swear I've been down this road before I want to get back to where it all began When I would long for only You

Like a child I'll take You at Your word As these mountains of doubt, they fade away I'm longing to trust and love You more So for me this is beautiful A brand new thought, and a brand new world Can I stay here forever here with You?

I've lost sight of what first drew me To the love that pursued me The joy that inspired my song The friendship that was all I knew The arms that I would fall into Seem miles and years from where I am today I got to get back to where it all began When I would wait for only You

Can I stay here forever Here with you? Surrounded by Your mercy Clothed in Your truth Always, I'll stay Always here with You

Can I be here forever Here with You? Can I know what it's like To deeply love You? Always, Lord, let me stay Always, here with You
