

Letting Go

Stars Go Dim

You've got a way
Of making me hold onto
The possibility of us once again
Deep down I know we'll never be
Living, laughing, loving in perfect harmony
The thought of you with someone else just kills me

I got to let you go
I'm in too deep
I never knew it would be this hard till now

Where do I go?
And how do I get there
Take me away from all the lies and let you go
How can I love again, knowing the pieces of you are still holdi ng onto me
Got to let you go.

Getting back, on your feet is never easy
Staying strong, Does she ever stop and think of me
For the way I use to be, for the way I use to love her
Deep down I know we'll never be
Living laughing loving in perfect harmony
I'm going on without you
I'm learning to live without you now

I'm coming down from what I thought was love but I guess I was so wrong
How could I ever fallen for you so bad?
Cause you're beautiful
