

How Much More

Stars

How much more am I supposed to take
How much more am I supposed to break
You asked for time, and time takes you away
I'm alone and you're, you're a man
I need you closer to me

My hands are tied
Because I won't say goodbye
I tried
I told you I was brave but I lied

Is this the story or
Is this the end
I always kill your shadow but,
Here we are again

In the wild, in the way you love me
With your smile, will you ever save
Save me,
Save me
Because we can't please ourselves
In this hell
You came to me so hopeless, I fell

How much more am I supposed to take
I can find forever in other ways
But how much more,
How much more?
I need you closer to me
Always.
