

The Loose Ends Will Make Knots

Stars

A heart suspends then bends it into three
A broken piece of what we used to be
I'm a knot but I'm never alone
I'm a knot that's smiling filled with hope
Emptiness caught the better half of me
Concrete is my memory
My blood turned into a mean streak
Twisting every part of us

Don't say it's all
don't say it's all been lost
Will you shift everything you thought
Don't say it's all
don't say it's all been lost
We'll pretend we've got that much
Don't say it's all
don't say it's all been lost
My throat gets caught
The loose ends will make knots
You're all I've got

I just want your past
I just want you now
Tomorrow I won't know
Until we're underground
Is that too much to ask

A heart suspends then bends it into three
A broken piece of what we used to be
