

The Woods

Stars

That day we walked a little deeper
Breathless and too alive to sleep
You always said i was a dreamer
But now i know whos dreaming deep
You took me to the woods to show me something
But ill turn my face away
You touched me in the sahed but then it got darker
Lets save it for another day
That day we walked a little deeper
Breathless, lost and too alive to stop
I always knew you'd be the one to show me a grove to lie in and cry into the treetops
