

Bring My Love

Starsailor

Bells will ring and everyone will know I came to bring my love back home.

Sun will shine on all our days of woe I came to bring my love b ack home.

All the seas shall rise, all the stars will shine,
And the moon will fall cross the meadow.

And I won't be caught in this state of mind for I know that I'll
l be your fellow

All the seas shall rise, all the stars will shine,
And the moon will fall cross the meadow.

And I won't be caught in this state of mind but I know that I'll
l be your fellow.

Bells will ring and everyone will know I came to bring my love,
back home.

Sun will dawn on all our days of woe I came to bring my love ba ck home.
