

Last Call

State of Shock

Would you notice me?
White t-shirt and jeans
Ain't no suit and tie
Does my blue collar shine?

That day on 7th street
When you bumped into me
Did you mean that line?
'Give me a call sometime'

I dial your number just to hang up the phone
Surprise, surprise there ain't nobody home
I guess I'm hanging on a moment

What if you could take a chance on me?
What if you could see all I could be?
Then for once and for all
Honey, I could be your last call
What if you could take a chance on me?
What if you could just make me believe?
Then for once, and for all
Honey, I could be your last call
And for once, and for all
Honey, I could be your last call

Now as people pass by
I tend to look twice
Is it your face that I see?
Or my mind just trickin' me
As I rewind in my mind
A brief moment in time
Guess you really got me
Cuz now I'm back on 7th street

I dial your number just to hang up the phone
Surprise, surprise, there ain't nobody home
I guess I'm hanging on a moment

What if you could take a chance on me?
What if you could see all I could be?
Then for once and for all
Honey, I could be your last call
What if you could take a chance on me?
What if you could just make me believe?
Then for once, and for all
Honey, I could be your last call
And for once, and for all
Honey, I could be your last call

I'm hanging on a moment
Well am I ever gonna let that moment go?
Or am I always gonna hold a little hope?
I guess we'll never ever really get to know
I guess that's how this story's gonna have to go
Oooh wo oh wo oh, how it goes

What if you could take a chance on me?

What if you could see all I could be?
Then for once and for all

What if you could take a chance on me?
What if you could see all I could be?
Then for once and for all
Honey, I could be your last call
What if you could take a chance on me?
What if you could just make me believe?
Then for once, and for all
Honey, I could be your last call
