

In the age of mass death
Mankind lost it's sense
His name is Kaspar
Welcome to his world
Walkin alone down the street
Feeling his presence very close to me
Endeavour to disclose my hidden thoughts
Pushin me to do things i never want
What i never do
I don't wanna do
I doesn't matter anyway
How could I resist the kaspar's view
I just try to do what I think is best to do
Hi I am kaspar
Your best friend
Follow me
Don't miss this chance
Come with me and I will show you all the contradictions
That u can see only with my Kaspar's view
I hope that it will bring you some contribution
Take your chance follow me in my kaspar's view
