

My fucking dream about future are dead
Betrayed the family, break the rules
No excuses, no reprieve today

The only thing I can say
I will kill myself today!

Commit suicide!

Why, oh why can I feel no more?

No more

Take me back, just where we started
I've heard you said, we're gonna to handle this
Now I know, I cannot make it
Now I know, I cannot take it

Why, oh why do I feel no more?
Why, oh why do i feel so more?

No more

This is the story about fame and glory
I got in the past and there is no more
I have to pay my dues today

The only thing I can say
I will kill myself today!

Commit suicide!

Why, oh why can I feel no more?

No more

Take me back, just where we started
I've heard you said, we've gonna to handle this
Now I know, I cannot make it
Now I konw, I cannot take it

No more
Why, oh why do I feel so torn?
