

Maybe, it is just our time
Never stopped and pryed,
Today, at this very place
Our journey ends, messer

Too many years we have been ranging among these lands,
Too many girls because of us have lost their faith

Boy, can't you see, we are going down my dear
Everybody clear your heads, the time is running,
Look, who is here, the Devil himself, indeed,
The truth is I really think we had it coming

Honey, why don't you come here
It will be over soon,
Today, at this very place
Your journey starts, messer

Too many years we have been ranging among these lands,
Too many girls because of us have lost their faith

Boy, can't you see, we are going down my dear
Everybody clear your heads, the time is running,
Look, who is here, the Devil himself, indeed,
The truth is I really think we had it coming
