

Over Again

Status Praesents

You are the man who sold it's own world
For another day in your paradise
This one by one neverendin' crowd
So much lives lost 'cause of this shit

Hey man you see, supported by me
This world is not for free

This game is over you know it all
There's no chance to get it back, yeah (man)
You wanted it so much that you lost all
All the things you loved man, yeah

Over and over again!!!
Now I can feel this crowling inside my mind, yeah

Hey you hey you, you staying down there
You'll be surprise any way
Hard core in our hearts
You'll be surprise....

I feel this deep inside
Now I close my eyes
