

Tell Me

Status Praesents

Never ever thought about this thing
Never imagine that it's such big
The difference in point of view

Why do they pay so much attention?
To do the silly things to make an impression
But they are nice and they are so sweet

Tell me why
The difference in point of view
Why does it always have to be so fucking hard?
Tell me why
Did not know

All this silly things look a bit weird
But everything is clear and everything is said
Don't understand this point of view

Why do we spent so much time so near
To feel their touch, their smell, no fear
There is a need to be strong

After all these findings want to say
We should be happy we got a lucky day
Cause it could be so much worse

Now I wanna say it all again
We should be happy we got a lucky day
Cause it could be so much worse
